Donna, Christye, Sue, Colby, Jo, Nancy To Cheer in '68

By MARTHA SMITH

Thomas C. Marsh is proud to have spirited cheerleaders for next year. The six girls chosen are Donna Bolinger, Christye John, Jo Moody, Colby Osborne, Sue Summerour and Nancy Lee Whitfield.

Approximately fifty girls began preparation for the cheerleader screening in April. All the girls worked hard the two weeks before screening. When screening arrived, the girls performed before four judges, Mr. Jim Perry, Miss Carol McDaniel, Miss Sara Fraser and Mrs. Anne Cook. Fourteen girls passed screening.

The finalists worked for another week on their cheers. April 11 they went before the student body to be voted on. The girls, coming out in pairs, were: Denise Bacher, Donna Bolinger, Vicki Henson, Christye John, Jo Moody, Nancy Morgan, Colby Osborne.

Susan Poe, Linda Sample, Anne Scauzillo, Sue Summerour, Nancy Lee Whitfield, Sheri Wolf and Lyn Woody.

Back in the gym Denise Bacher said, "I don't think I made it, but it was fun."

Donna Bolinger asked, "Are you kidding?"

Christye John just started laughing.

To Susan Poe, "It was lots of fun, but scary."

Jo Moody cried, "I flubbed it up for sure."

Nancy Lee Whitfield asked, "Oh, what should I say?" when asked to comment for this paper.

Nancy Morgan, Sheri Wolf, and Colby Osborne agreed with Sue Summerour when she said, "It was tons fun once you got up there."

Vicki Henson and Linda Sample later agreed they had "never been so scared" as they had when they were on stage.

Anne Scauzillo hoped "the best ones get it," and Lyn Woody added that "anybody who gets it will be the best there is."

These fourteen girls waited im-

Trophy for Sportsmanship Awarded to Us for Keeps!

After three years of hoping and working, Marsh won the Sportsmanship Trophy for keeps. May 2, a group of students and teachers attended a general awards assembly and accepted the trophy for Marsh.

The next morning, two assemblies were held at Marsh. Robert

Salih began the program by congratulating the students for winning the award. As the curtains were opened, he presented Marsh's Sportsmanship Trophy to the student body.

Bill Day, for the football team, Margaret Hale, for the cheerleaders, Fredna Howard, for the sportsmanship committee, Debbie Hathaway, for the Caudrilla, and Pat McManemin, for the Matador Band, congratulated the student body for winning the trophy and thanked the students for their help.

Coach Kuykendall spoke to the student body on behalf of the coaching staff. He also thanked the students for their cooperation during the year, and he stressed that it was the students who had brought the award into effect.

Hanlon Skillman, representing the track team, Nancy Boyd, representing the tennis team, Wayne Warren, representing the basketball team, and Mike Langford, representing the baseball team, also gave speeches.

Robert Salih recognized the members of the Sportsmanship Committee, Margaret Hale, Billy Davis, Fredna Howard, and their sponsor, Mr. Densmore.

Robert also recognized the two gentlemen who are avid Matador fans and who have helped Marsh to win the trophy, Mr. Martin and Mr. Stanley.

After the assembly, the trophy was placed in the trophy case, and if students at Marsh work hard enough, another Sportsmanship Trophy might join it in three more years.

Walton, Wildfong, Lambreth Elected

By DALE McCALEB

The 1967-68 Student Council officers have been elected. The president will be Steve Walton; vice president, John Wildfong; and secretary, Mary Beth Lambreth.

Those who wished to be an officer were given a deadline to sign up in Mr. Densmore's room. Their grades were then checked for a "B" average. Each candidate was allowed to put up two campaign posters. They then wrote their speeches to be reviewed in front of the sponsors. The sponsors were Mr. Densmore, Mrs. Smith, Miss Fraser, and Mr. Ansley. The day came when the speeches were to be given to the seventh and eighth grades, but the actual voting occurred in the homerooms.

Later the winners of the excellent roster of candidates were announced: Walton, Wildfong, and Lambreth are to lead next year's student body.

On March 15, 133 girls met after school for drill team tryouts. The judges were Miss Sams from Hillcrest, Miss Hardy from Jefferson, and Miss Roundry from Gooch. They graded the girls on marching, appearance, presentation of the routine, and personality.

The 74 girls that made the drill team are Cathy Austin, Denise Bacher, Colleen Bachus, Kim Barnard, Connie Beard, Cindy Bell, Patti Bell, Sherry Benfer, Linda Bramblett, Kim Broils, Cindy Brown, Gwen Bruhl, Malyn Burttschelle, Cheryl Cannon, Kim Davis, Carolyn Dickerson, Terri Efrid, Karen Ellingson, Sherry Everitt, Melani Flowers, Kristen Fort, Marty Gordon, Annette Guice, Gwen Hanson, Susan Hartley, Kathy Haynes, Carol Hileman, Vicki Henson, Gretchen Hoffman, Jennie Howe, Becky James, Cindy G. James, Cindy J. James, Cindy Johnson, Jane Johnston, Venita Jones, Jeanne Jordan, Linda Kravitz.

Mary Beth Lambreth, Carol Long, Colleen Lucas, Karen Martin, Barbara Matthews, Bet McCrary, Janie McWhirter, Candy Mitchell, Nancy Moore, Nancy Morgan, Nan Neale, Rhondina Phillips, Susan Poe, Candy Rowe, Laura Russell, Barbara Salyers, Sherri Sann, Anne Scauzillo, Debby Schmidt, Jan Seltzer.

Officer practice began April 17. 44 girls practiced after school from 4:00 to 5:00. The requirements to try out for officer of the drill team were as follows:

1. At least a 2.5 grade average
2. Make up a routine of 6 steps with 32 counts to each step

3. Ability to perform this routine

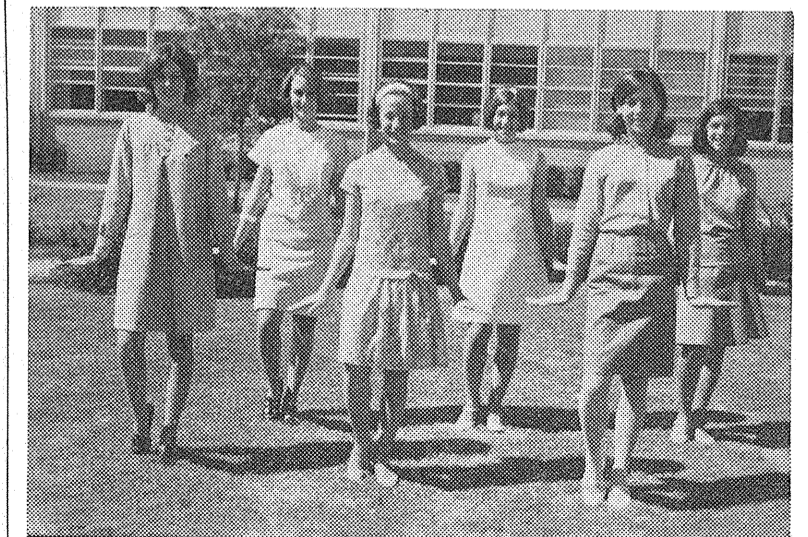

4. Good citizenship

Thursday afternoon, April 20, a pre-screening was held. Forty-four girls performed the routine they made up. Twenty girls with a score of 90 or above passed the judges. They were Patti Bell, Kim Broils, Carolyn Dickerson, Gwenn Hanson, Vicki Henson, Gretchen Hoffman, Cindy J. James, Cindy Johnson, Jane Johnston, Lin-

NJHS Induction

May 17, seventeen eighth graders joined the Thomas C. Marsh Junior High Chapter of the National Junior Honor Society. The induction ceremony was held first period, and was in the form of a trial.

Penni Crouch acted as the burglar, Kim Kirk as the clerk, Steve Shankweiler as the scribe and Richard Kreekon as the judge. Larry Greaves was the tribune who asked admittance to the Society on behalf of the eighth graders.

Barby Glaze, Annette Evans, Tom Turet, Paula Lozana and Pat McManemin were the witnesses who assisted Larry in explaining the five requirements necessary for admittance to the Society, namely, scholarship, service, leadership, character and citizenship.

Susan Lloyd offered the prayer and Mike Ruff, Honor Society President, administered the pledge. As Lillian Boemer called out the names of the students, they filed on stage to receive their certificates.

Mr. Martin then congratulated the new members and spoke to them on the importance of their pledge. Richard Kreekon closed the program with a prayer of advice to the seventeen students.

Each spring 3 per cent of the eighth graders are elected to the National Junior Honor Society. The seventeen new members of the NJHS are Barbara Aigner, Nancy Boushka, Susan Boushka, Daphne Brooks, Linda Files, Kristen Fort, Leslie Haralson, Mike Kieschnick, Debra Kittleson.

Keith Lehtinen, Robert Merrill, Nancy Morgan, Anne Scauzillo, Chris Stokes, Steve Walton, Lynn Woody and Nancy Lee Whitfield.

Drill Team—

da Kravitz, Karen Martin, Nancy Morgan, Susan Poe, Anne Scauzillo, Lisa Smith, Debbie Spangler, Kathy Stewart, Phyllis Trammel, Melissa Troster, Lyn Woody.

The judges were Mrs. Chesier, Miss Long, Mrs. Mowery and Mrs. Harrison. They graded on routine, appearance, and personality. Also taken into consideration were the girls' grade point and their score at drill team tryouts.

These twenty girls practiced April 21 to April 25. The final screening was on April 26. At final screening the girls marched and commanded different companies. Individually they taught a step and presented their routine to next year's drill team, Mrs. Thomas, and the judges who were Mrs. Tenison, Miss Zeizer, and Miss Jones. They graded on the girls' marching and commanding ability, routine, appearance and personality, and teaching a step. The six girls who made it had a score of 97 or above. "It was close," said Mrs. Thomas, "four girls made 96." Lyn Woody, Gretchen Hoffman, Anne Scauzillo, Nancy Morgan, Vicki Henson, and Kim Broils were announced as the officers on April 27.

On May 4, the '67-'68 drill team came early to vote on one of these six girls for captain. Nancy Morgan was named captain. Vicki Henson, Lyn Woody, Anne Scauzillo, Kim Broils, and Gretchen Hoffman were named lieutenants.

This summer, July 30 through August 4, the new officers and many drill team girls will attend Drill Team School at S.M.U. They will learn routines, marching formations, and poise.

NEWSBEAT

By Cindy BLUNDELL and NANCY LEVY

Do you think the U. S. should be in Viet Nam?

Chip Staggs, 17—Yeah, if we don't get them there, the United States will be the only country without communism.

Sue Danielson, 21—Yes, unless we want the world conquered by communists.

Don Ellington, 41—No, 'cause it's theirs and they should do what they want with it.

Cheryl Rogers, 22—No, because then Mr. Tudor couldn't lecture us about it.

Nancy Marakas, 23—Yes, we have to stop communism somewhere.

Paige Edwards, 44—Yes, 'cause we should expand our aid, and no 'cause our boys are getting killed.

Bruce Wiland, 24—Yes, Viet Nam has a right to be free, too.

Billy Woodin, 45—Yes, if communism takes over South Viet Nam, then they can spread it.

Jeff Jackson, 54—Yes, because those poor people over there need our reinforcements.

Pat Pitcher, 19—No. Jeff Mayer, 43—Yeah, but we shouldn't be the only ones over there.

Patty Manning, 15—Yes, why not? Susan Plume, 46—Yes, to get the rice back.

Karen Secrest, 23—Yes, we should be. Debbie Russell, 25—I don't know.

Mark Thornton, 46—Yes, we have a moral obligation. Denise Blacknon, 47—No, 'cause they should do it themselves.

Van Freeman, 49—Yeah, 'cause if we didn't, they'd probably start another world war. Dana Whitledge, 25—Yes, definitely!

Darilyn Blanton, 50—No, 'cause all our boys are getting killed. Terri Utgard, 14—Yes, why not now as later?

Debbie Zelens, 16—Yes, it's important. Pam Strobel, 27—No.

Carolyn Smith, 53—Yes, 'cause if the communists take over V.N. it's only a little ways over to the U.S.

Kathy Ross, 26—Yes, I sure do. Sarah Toppins, 25—Yes! We're fighting for what we believe.

Mike Rush, 56—We gotta spend our money somewhere, yet.

Lanny Temple, 25—Yes, to keep the communists out.

Mary Weddington, 59—Yeah, because if we don't, all the communism will keep spreading.

More New Teachers

MRS. CHASTAIN

By CHRISTY HIRSH

Mrs. Chastain is a ninth grade math teacher. She attended Baylor University where she received a business degree. She majored in math and physical education, as well as business and also did graduate work at Texas Tech and S.M.U.

Mrs. Chastain enjoys teaching at the junior high level best of all, even though she has taught every grade except first. She explained her feelings by referring to junior high as a "transition period" — the change from childhood to adulthood.

Her husband was in the Air Force which allowed her to travel quite a bit with their three children. Her hobbies include costume designing, participating in sports, collecting unusual recipes, and math creativity.

her Master's Degree in the field of nursing.

She has worked at Parkland and Gaston Hospitals and as nurse at William L. Cabell Elementary and Letot.

Mrs. Clapp's pet peeve is students who aren't really sick who come to the clinic. She also would like to see fewer accidents such as throwing rocks, running and pushing in the halls and on the stairs. Her hobbies are swimming, cooking, sewing, and singing.

MR. LITTLEFIELD

By DAVID HOLCOMB

Mr. Don Littlefield is Marsh's new physical education teacher. He was born in Dallas and attended Texas Technological College. He received his Bachelor of Science Degree in 1965 and his Masters in physical education in 1966. Before coming to Marsh, he taught at William L. Cabell Elementary School.

Mr. Littlefield likes all sports.

MISS GALLAGHER

If you have noticed a cute, pixie-like blonde buzzing around Marsh this semester, it is probably Miss Gallagher. This is her first semester to teach (maybe why she still has that big smile??), and her area is seventh and eighth grade language arts.

She was born in Boston, but moved to Dallas eight years ago (in an effort toward improvement.)

Graduated in January of 1967 from East Texas State, she was corresponding secretary of her sorority, secretary of the junior class, and on the Dean's List.

She will continue teaching next year, but with a new name. The wedding is June 10th.

When she is not checking roll, instructing, grading papers, and frowning at students, she likes to read, water ski, listen to music, and (we hope) keep house.

MRS. SMITH

By DOLORES ZACCARIA

At Marsh, there is a new addition to the faculty, Mrs. Smith. She teaches the eighth grade language arts classes that Mr. Newman had before he became vice-principal at Amelia Earhart Elementary School.

Mrs. Smith graduated from SMU and did her practice teaching in Houston, where she is originally from. While her husband was in the Navy for three years, they lived in Long Beach, California. Part of this time, Mrs. Smith taught freshman courses in college.

She likes golf, oil paintings, teenagers, and Marsh very much.

MR. ADAIR

By CAROLYN WERNETTI

Art teacher, Mr. Adair has a very interesting background. Born in Tagor, Niberia, West Africa, Mr. Adair lived there until he was five. His family then moved to New York, Austin, Abilene, Waco, omrmerce, Astin, ommerce, and then to Dallas this fall.

During Mr. Adair's two years at Baylor he was a member of the Baylor Band. After spending two years at Baylor, he went to East Texas for the summer and fall terms and then to Texas University for the spring term.

While at T.U. he took courses in sculpturing, painting, and ceramics. Back at East Texas, he received his B.S. degree and was certified to teach all levels. In the spring of last year, Mr. Adair was admitted to graduate school. He is now working on his M.S. degree at home.

Mr. Adair has one son, John Bradley Adair, who is two years and three months old.

Mr. Adair's main interest is three dimensional art, such as ceramics, metal, and sculpturing.

MRS. CLAPP

We all know the one we turn to when we're sick at school—our lovable and sympathetic nurse, Mrs. Stella Clapp.

Mrs. Clapp grew up in Chicago, where her mother inspired her to be a nurse. She moved to Dallas in 1949, where she met her husband. She has two children—Fred, a ninth grader at Rusk and Susan, a seventh grader at Letot.

Mrs. Clapp went to De Pauw University in Indiana to get her Bachelor's Degree and to Western Reserve University in Ohio to earn VALENTINE QUEEN — Dana Temerlin, reigning Valentine beauty, shown before the dance. No picture was available when the story was published last issue. Congratulations on Dana's honor.

Band, Strings Win

By SUE CLOSSER

Recently the band went to the Thomas Jefferson Festival of Bands. Several bands in the Dallas area competed against one another and received ratings according to how well they played.

The Matador Band received the rating of excellent. A few weeks later, the band and orchestra went to the Dallas Contest held at Hillcrest High School. This is when all the bands and orchestras in the Dallas area receive their rating for the year.

Both organizations worked extremely hard for the contest and the results proved it. The band received superior rating for the year and the orchestra rated excellent.

Chorus Presents Fling Highland Style Show

April 27 in the Thomas C. Marsh auditorium, as bagpipes wailed in the background, an elderly, gray-haired, Scottish gentleman named Mr. Lundi (Mark Williams) welcomed the people in the audience to a "gathering o' the clans." Mr. Lundi called six Scottish clans, and all marched down the aisles, with their coat of arms carried before them.

That's how "A Highland Fling," the ninth grade chorus's spring musical, began. Conducted by Mr. Tom Council, accompanied by Bill Lindburg on the piano and Henry King on the drums, the chorus sang its way through an hour of Scottish songs, dances, and stories. The first half of the musical was traditional Scottish tunes. The second part was the music "an' a bit o' stagin' from Brigadoon," the musical with lyrics by Alan Jay Lerner and music by Frederick Loewe.

After the clans were behind the curtain, the chorus sang "Scotland the Brave" and "Scots Wha Ha'e Wi Wallace Bled," as Mr. Lundi gave a brief history of Scotland.

According to Mr. Lundi, the Scots have beautiful love songs, such as "Ye Banks and Braes," the next song performed by the chorus. "Bonnie George Campbell," the story of a loun man who rode away from home and whose horse returned home riderless, was sung by the girls' ensemble. Members of the ensemble are Becky Beard, Nancy Boyd, Mary Fuller, Margaret Hale, Fredna Howard, Cindy Martin, Lynda Rush, Becky Terrill, Susan Thompson and Lou Turner.

The chorus changed from love songs to familiar Scottish tunes, "By Yon Bonnie Banks" and a lively version of "Comin' Through the Rye." A switch from well-known songs to Robert Burns was made when Lynda Rush sang her lovely solo "My Heart Is Sair I Daurna Tell." Another Robert Burns favorite, "Auld Lang Syne," was sung by the chorus, and as "Scotland the Brave" was repeated, the curtain closed on the first part of "A Highland Fling."

When intermission ended and the lights were dimmed, Mr. Lundi was talking to a lassie (Mary Wallington) and a lad (Rob Cloud). The chorus sang "Brigadoon" and "Once in the Highlands" while Mr. Lundi began the story of Brigadoon.

The chorus broke into a rousing "Down on MacConnachy Square" when the curtains opened. The townspeople waved to each other and to their friends coming up from the aisles. When "MacConnachy Square" ended, a milk maid, (Fredna Howard) sang a little ditty to sell her milk, and "MacConnachy Square" was repeated.

Charlie (Tom Turet) came bounding over the bridge and sang a very gay "I'll Go Home With Bonnie Jean."

The girls' ensemble helped pack Jeanne's clothes while they sang "Jennie's Packin' Up." Afterwards, Fiona (Debbie Russell) sang her very pretty solo, "Waitin' for My Dearie." The next song the chorus sang was "The Heather on the Hill."

Charlie stood outside Jeanne's (Louise Pryor) home and sang "Come to Me" as she danced a ballet.

The next song the chorus sang was "Almost Like Being in Love." After the wedding, Jeanne started the Highland Fling, and four girls (Glenda Bland, Jeanne Rouget, Jackie Whetstone and Pam White) joined her.

The music and dancing stopped as Harry Beaton (Frank Parks) charged up the bridge and threatened to leave Brigadoon, thereby break the spell and make Brigadoon disappear. The chorus sang "The Chase" and while the funeral march was played, Mr. Lundi said Harry died.

The chorus sang "From This Day On" and repeated "Brigadoon" as the curtain closed on "A Highland Fling."

Behind the scenes were Mr. Adair, the set designer, Miss Strickland, the dama coach, Louise Pryor, choreographer, Steve Bresnen, stage manager, Bill Flynt and Preston Conrad, lights, and Ricky Davis, in charge of sound.

OUR FAVORITE

MARSH UN'S

Mr. Moore considers himself a famous scientist. On a recent science test a question was asked to which the supposedly correct answer was "Mr. Moore." It was as follows, "Who is the famous educator who attempts to teach you physical science?"

While the orchestra was taping the record one afternoon the girls' ensemble waited for their turn. Mr. Council got cokes for the girls from the men's lounge. Wasn't it nice of Bill Linberg to return them to the women's lounge for the girls?

Debbie Hathaway, I'm sure the GI Joe you gave Bill Day for his birthday is just what he wanted!

Mr. Shepard is a whiz. Not only is he a biology teacher, but also a scientist, doctor, semi-pro baseball pitcher, professor, advisor to American youth, athletic coach, etc.!!

Mrs. Cook and Miss MacDaniel, don't you know how to give a short test?

Say Mr. Council, what would have to freeze over and who will go ice skating before the chorus will open up their mouths and sing?

Carol Saub was so surprised when Susan White told her she was on a diet that she started a petition around school reading, "If you think Susan White should not go on a diet, sign here." She got quite a few signatures, too.

Trisha Bogart, it seems you are a little dense. How could you get yourself mixed up with Cheryl Allison and your sister, Susan, mixed up with Jackie Andreoli when picking up your drivers ed exam card?

Jimmy Defontas, how many people have signed your petition about Susan Young's sexy legs?

503 9th Graders Invade Six Flags

By DANA WHITLEDGE

On the afternoon of May 19, 503 out of 602 ninth grade students poured out of Marsh and into buses. The buses loaded right after school and as soon as the last person was on board, they pulled out for Six Flags Over Texas.

There were nine buses with two chaperones on each. The students were free to do what they wished in Six Flags until 10:30 that night when they boarded the buses at the front gate. They were then taken back to Marsh where their parents picked them up.

The people responsible for planning and carrying out this event were the ninth grade room mothers with the help of the P. T. A. Some of the main people who planned the ninth grade party were Mrs. Bill McManemin, director of special activities for P.T.A. and the general chairmen of the Neal and Mrs. Doyle Brooks.

9th Grade Sluggers Close Season 9-5-0

Baseball season looked good for the ninth grade team at Marsh. The team had beat Spence, 17-6, Rusk, 5-0, Rusk, 21-8, and Spence, 10-4, in the four practice games. The first game of the season was a bad one for Marsh. Franklin won 8-0. Things got a little better the next game. Then it began to rain and rain. Several of the games were postponed.

But when it cleared up, Marsh got back in step. Here is an overall look at the 9th grade season:

Marsh 0	Franklin 8
Marsh 1	Florence 8
Marsh 0	Hood 8
Marsh 9	Long 3
Marsh 18	Hill 14
Marsh 7	Comstock 2
Marsh 8	Cary 9
Marsh 1	Gaston 5

The members of the Marsh ninth grade baseball team and their positions are as follows:

- Russell Shaffer and Hank Foldberg, first basemen
- Andy Lawler and Jerry Martin, second basemen
- Ronnie Brooks and Pete Zorbanos, third basemen
- Mike Langford and Alan Ball, catchers
- Rod Shaw and Robert Klink, shortstops
- Bill McCaw, Bill Perley, Curt Crawford and Skip Neilson, pitchers
- Steve Dann and Robert Kaine, right field
- Robert Salih, center field
- Gary Vaughan and Dave Sugarek, managers

Eighth Grade Proves Worth

By BOB OLIVER

The Marsh eighth grade baseball team, which consists of 29 seventh and eighth graders started the '67 season with a 2 win-1-loss record.

The only pre-season game played by the team proved their ability. They beat Spence 8-1 in a wild game. Gaston played Marsh in the first game of the season. The game was tight all the way, so much, in fact, that Marsh had to add an extra inning. But Gaston won 5 to 4.

Marsh won its second game against Franklin, with a score of 7 to 6.

The members of the Marsh eighth grade baseball team coached by Mr. Lynch and managed by Tom Cummings are as follows:

- Outfielders, Ed Cornelius, Ed Davis, John Kays, Larry Loftis, David Margo, Mike Morris, Paul Payne, John Potter, Tom Riordon, Jim Shields, Randy Speed and Mike Staags.
- First basemen, Bob Anderson, Jim Bogart, Rob Cloud and Keith Lehtinen.
- Second basemen, Mike Gresham and Bruce Montgomery.
- Third basemen, Kimmy Combs, Frank Parks and Bob Richards.
- Shortstops, John Boyd, Steve Ferguson and Kip Tindell.
- Catchers, Wayne Perkins and Robin Wilcox.
- Pitchers, Ricky Alexander, Bill Montgomery and Garry Watson.

Band Brings Honors

By SUE CLOSSER

On May 13, several members of the band, orchestra and chorus competed at the solo and ensemble contest held at J. L. Long Junior High.

Since over sixty students went to the contest, only those who made "Best of a Kind" (outstanding on their instrument) and those who made I's are mentioned here.

Best of a Kind: Ellen Elliot, flute; Robert Merrill, clarinet; Michael Moore, cornet; Henry King, Richard Sanders, Rick Horne, Steve Culley, Stuart Culley, Martin Wells, Jere Terrill, Drum Ensemble.

I's in Solos: Sue Closser, flute; Marianna Riser, flute; Pat Salter, flute; Rosemarie Illich, saxophone; Steve Parsons, clarinet; Susan Lloyd, clarinet; Gary Klecka, cornet; Lee Raudebaugh, cornet; Steve Wetter, trombone; Preston Conrad, baritone; Will Street, bass; Henry King, drum; Stuart Culley, drum; Steve Culley, drum; Jere Terrill, drum.

Favorites Recorded By Music Groups

By SUE CLOSSER

Did you know that Marsh has recording artists? Friday, April 7, the chorus and Matador Band stayed after school and worked over four hours on making a record. Some of the selections were "Coming Through the Rye," "I Beheld Her, Beautiful As a Dove," by the ninth grade chorus, "Exodus," "Watermelon Man," "Matador's Fight," and "The Thomas C. Marsh Alma Mater," by the band. The orchestra recorded the next Wednesday because of lack of time Friday. Two of their pieces were "Plink Plank Plunk," and "Song of Brotherhood."

The record is a twelve-inch LP and has over forty minutes of music on it. The monaural sold for $3.50 and stereo for $4.25.

All three organizations worked very hard on the record and all concerned agree that it was a success.

All Marbles Captured by Cindermen

The 1967 track team had track meets at various tracks in the city of Dallas, mainly in the new Loos Stadium, P. C. Cobb Stadium and Sprague Stadium. The team participated in eight practice track meets. They competed against all the teams in the junior high division in Dallas, approximately 21 teams. In every practice meet Marsh entered, they placed in the top three teams.

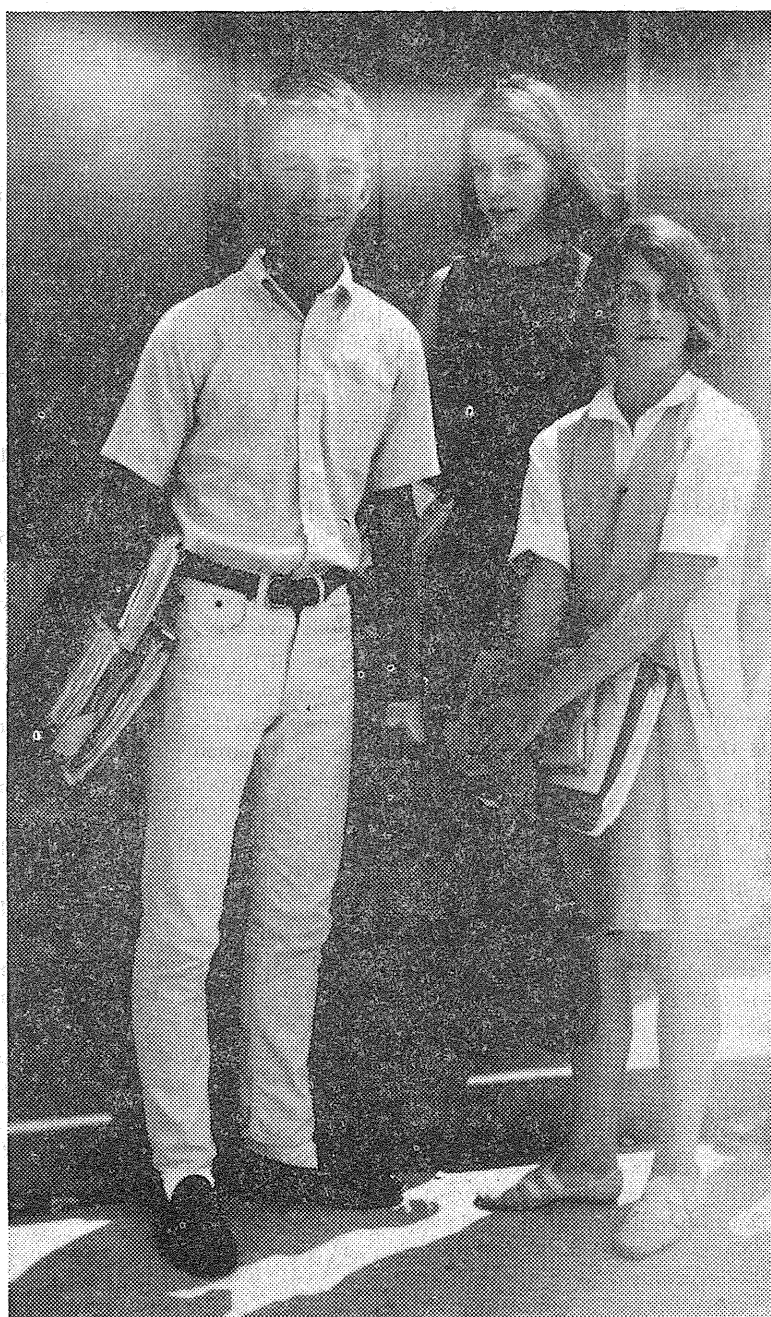

The main competitors for Marsh in the practice meets were Gary, Rusk, Spence, Franklin, Long and Greiner.

The two major track meets that Marsh participated in were the Junior High Relays held at Loos and the Dallas Junior High Track Meet, where Marsh won the North Zone title. In both meets, the whole T. C. Marsh track team contributed to an excellent season. The team feels they never could have done it without Coach Dick Hill and Coach Ken Kuykendall.

The members of the Marsh Track team, and the events they competed in, are as follows:

- 880-relay: Pete Zorbanos, Jimmy Defontes, Hanlon Skillman and David Jackson
- 440-relay: John Johnston, Jimmy Defontes, Pete Zorbanos and Hanlon Skillman
- 220-yd. dash: Hanlon Skillman
- 100-yd. dash: Billy Davis
- 220 low-hurdle: Bob Campbell, Bryan Harrington
- 120 high-hurdle: Brodie Lewis
- 880-yd run: Rod Shaw, Randy Mobley and Richard Kreckon
- 440-yd. run: David Jackson and Doug Hodges
- Shot-put: Steve Shankweiler, Joe Abney and Don Margo
- High jump: Brodie Lewis
- Broad jump: Joe Abney, Randy Lancaster and Nathan Myerson
- Pole vault: Phil Smuland

MARGARET HALE

By DANA WHITLEDGE

One of the most active students at Marsh this year has been Margaret Hale. Not only has she done her duties as cheerleader with enthusiasm, but she has done many other worthwhile things, too. Contributing time to a school or organization is not new to Margaret as she has been doing since before she started school.

Margaret Hale was born in Baylor Hospital here in Dallas, on September 12, 1952. She was the mascot of the seventh grade at Arthur Kramer during the school year 1957-58 when she was five.

During her grade school years she won several red and blue ribbons on school field days.

Margaret then came to Marsh where she soon became an active student. She is in the honors program where she makes good grades and still has time to do other things and be friendly to everyone she meets. In the seventh grade she danced in the musical at Marsh; she also did this in the eighth grade. She was elected to the Student Council by her classmates during her years in the eighth and ninth grades. She has served on the sportsmanship committee of the Student Council this year. She was at Rusk this year for the presentation of the sportsmanship award.

Margaret attends Lovers Lane Methodist Church. During the seventh grade she was vice-president of MYF. She is also a member of Rainbow Girls and belongs to the YWCA.

This summer she plans to go to New York City and attend Camp Grady Spruce upon her return. Next fall she will attend Warren Travis White High School.

BILLY DAVIS

Billy Davis, one of the most outstanding and likable students in Marsh, has been selected as another Old Gold winner. Billy was born in Waco on November 2, 1951. Since that time he has proven himself a natural leader. Billy has held both offices of president of his class and vice-president of the student body during his school career. He was also selected to serve this year as one of the four members of the Sportsmanship Committee.

Billy has been a member of the baseball, football, basketball, and track teams and yet still maintains an "A" average in his studies.

His favorite pastimes are horses, hunting, and swimming.

ANNETTE EVANS

By DALE McCALEB

Another of our Old Gold winners is Annette Evans. Most of you know her as the editor of the Matador, our school newspaper. She has contributed a great deal to the welfare of T. C. Marsh through her many activities and services.

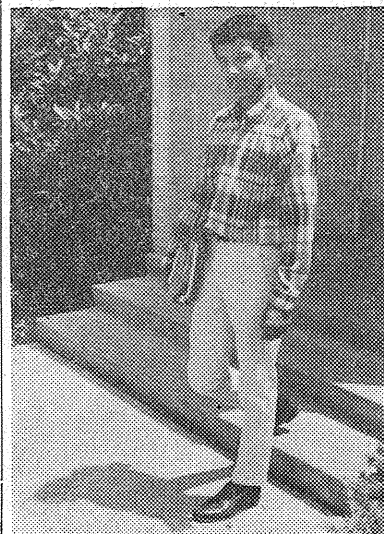

Annette was born in Houston, Texas, where she lived until she moved to Portland, Oregon, at the age of five. She then came to Dallas, where she attended Maple Lawn and Valwood Elementary Schools. After a brief absence from Dallas, she attended William L. Cabell. Then she transferred to T. C. Marsh in the seventh grade.

She has been in a number of organizations, including the Drill Team, Chorus, the Library Club, and the National Junior Honor Society. To be an active member of all these and to be editor of the newspaper requires quite an organization of time. Many people don't realize the number of hours Annette and her staff have spent before school, after school, and burning the midnight oil attempting to get the newspaper out. It's quite a task, and Annette has done a great job.

Annette enjoys travel and reading. One of her favorite subjects is France. Upon her graduation from White, she plans to major in journalism at the University of Texas.

ROBERT SALIH

By JULIE NORMAN

This past year, one young man has done a tremendous amount of hard work for Marsh. This boy is Robert Salih, president of the Student Council and student body. Robert has done much to make Marsh the best school in Dallas.

Robert was born on November 2, 1951, in Dallas, Texas. Before attending T. C. Marsh in the seventh grade, Robert attended St. Monica's. His chief interest at Monica's.

When Robert came to Marsh, he went out for athletics. He lettered in baseball while in the eighth grade, and he still enjoys basketball. At the end of a successful eighth grade campaign, Robert was elected Student Council President. During the latter part of the eighth grade, Robert was included in the 3 per cent of the eighth grade selected for National Junior Honor Society. This year, Robert was on the committee that voted for the Sportsmanship Award. Robert is not only in these various activities, but he maintains an A average in the honor's program.

One of Robert's chief outside interests is combos. Because of his busy schedule though, Robert has not been able to participate in as many combos as he would like. His main "love" is baseball, which he enjoys playing very much. Willie Mays has been his idol for years.

Robert likes just about everything, except the family cat, which he is allergic to. He has two brothers, John (a junior at White), and Jim (a 7th grader at Marsh).

Robert does not have any definite plans about his future work or as to what college he will attend, although law has been discussed.

WAYNE WARREN

By GARRY SEGAL

In Marsh this year there is one person who has more or less put "Marsh Jr. High on the map." The boy to whom I am referring is Wayne Warren. Acting as a fine example for the student body,

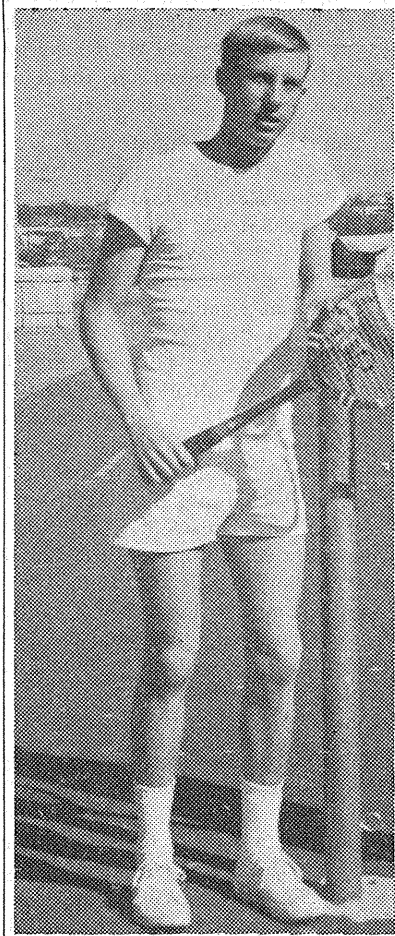

Wayne took part in many extra-curricular activities, besides his studies, all of which are helping Marsh become the best junior high in the city.

Born March 15, 1951, Wayne spent the first few years of his life in Sherman, Texas. Wayne and his family moved to Dallas in 1955. He attended J. P. Russell Elementary School. While there, he was a Cub Scout until sports took over his interests.

Wayne takes his schooling seriously and also tries to help the school. He takes an active part in the Student Council and also is a member of the National Junior Honor Society.

Wayne is known as more of an outdoor man. He has lettered in tennis three years, basketball two years, and football this year. This year on the varsity football team as first string quarterback, he led Marsh to a six win-three loss record. After this as captain of the Marsh basketball team, Marsh had a seven win-two loss record. This included a game in which he scored twenty-seven points. Then on the tennis team he helped make Marsh number one and city champ. Wayne is a member of the John Calvin Presbyterian Church. His mother says that other than sports Wayne likes "plenty of food" and books.

Next year he will attend Warren Travis White and, we hope, have as fine a record as he has had at Marsh.

Marsh Chorus Groups Win With Contest Selections

By ADELE RICHMAN

Although the ninth grade chorus worked very hard on the spring musical, that was not the only thing the chorus has done this semester. Along with the band and orchestra the chorus made a record, which was sponsored by the Marsh P. T. A. "Coming Through the Rye," "Oh, Come Ye Servants of the Lord," "I Beheld Her, Beautiful as a Dove," and "Praise Ye the Lord of Hosts" were recorded by the chorus. The mixed and girls' ensembles were also recorded.

The chorus had been preparing all year for the contest at Bryan Adams High School, set for May 13. This contest only involved junior high choruses. Each of the eighteen groups sang before the judges and were graded in eight areas.

Mrs. Bond and Marsh's eighth grade chorus were also present at the contest. They sang "Finlandia" and "My Bonnie Lass She Smileth," and afterwards received a standing ovation. Their grade sheet backed up the ovation with six "A's" and two "B's." That score gave them a first division rating. This group was the only eighth grade chorus entered in the contest.

Mr. Council and the ninth grade chorus sang two selections, "I Beheld Her, Beautiful as a Dove" and "Oh Come Ye Servants of the Lord." They also came home with a first division rating, the scores being seven "A's" and one "B."

Before the contest, the eighth grade choir had performed for the P. T. A. and after the contest, for the student body on May 17.

Next year, the ninth grade chorus will be double the size it is now. Several performance invitations have already been accepted, and next year's chorus promises to be the best junior high choir in Dallas.

The Bryan Adams contest concluded the performances of the ninth grade chorus. The members feel they owe their success to their directors, Mr. Charles Council and Mrs. Pat Bond for their hard work, and especially for their patience.

Cheerleaders—

patiently to see who had become the 1967-68 cheerleaders. The chosen six were announced in the middle of fifth period. The reactions were unusual. Jo stood up and screamed. Colby started crying. Donna and Sue couldn't say anything; they were too stunned.

Marsh students know that next fall they will have an excellent group of cheerleaders.
